'Space ships whizzing through the air,
Pilots driving them without a care.
This is the world that we foresee,
As early in the future as '93.

As we whiz towards a star,
We know it isn't very far.
Only 2200 light years away,
But we can make it in a day!

It seems that this is far away,
But even today scientist say,
"It seems only a few years away."

When it will happen we are not sure,
Because space, to man, is such a lure.
We only know that someday,
Man will find a possible way.

Daeon Harris

Sammy,
You are a really sweet and great guy!
I wish you the best in everything
Stay Sweet

DO WHAT?!?!?

A Tuesday morning Student Council meeting with Matt Carter, Student Council president presiding

Homecoming is big business with Student Council. Many plans get going for student fun during the homecoming week. Tag sales double and spirit is generated to produce murals for the gym, decorations in the halls and skits for assembly. In the picture, Jerry Escamilla, Fred Barnard, Mindy Nesbitt and Kevin Sitz reenact the tug-of-war event.

Student Council is a spirit and service organization which initiates programs and activities to help the school and the community. The local Student Council is a member of the state organization. Mr. B. Stanley Smith, principal of Monahans High School is head of the local Student Council with Mr. Dick McClanahan and Mrs. Elizabeth Heath as assisting sponsors.

Mr. Smith, address the Student Council

"Posting" Santagrams on the hall bulletin board. left to right: Ginger Sparks, Roger Kuykendall, Becky Mason, Sandra Valenzuela. Two months later, Valentines go up for the season.

Nichole Morgan, Recording Secretary; also in charge of the Student Council store

Beth Ice, Vice-President; also tag salesman

Christmas Breakfast for Student Council. Amy Ice (in foreground) seems to be enjoying it.

Poster making by all Student Council members is an around-the-year job. Shown in the picture are Dedra McCracken and Rodney Markham but everyone gets in the act to publicize elections, the Halloween Candy sale, the Presidential Classroom project and the money making Enchilada Dinner which has become an annual event. For several years Student Council has also sponsored a Blood Drive and this is publicized at school as well as in the community.

Santa (without costume) and his Christmas elves.

Each year, Student Council sponsors a Christmas "gifting" for needy families in the community. On the day that school recesses for Christmas, Santa visits each room and accepts donations. The total collected usually amounts to about $150.00 which makes six recipients very happy.

Student Council sponsors two dances each year, one for Homecoming and the other for Valentine's Day. This year, the gym was beautifully decorated for both occasions. Under the direction of Matt Carter (president), and Nicole Morgan (Recording Secretary) the student body was reintroduced to an old custom at MHS—the crowning of a King and Queen of Hearts. Shown dancing with their "subjects" are Jeff Stevenson (king) and Dedra Harrell (queen) for a night.

Shown in the picture to the left are the artists who help keep two bulletin boards decorated throughout the year. left to right: Shawn Cox, Joe and David Bravo, Bessie Davila

"Awareness through involvement" describes the Presidential Classroom experience for 9 MHS students who went to Washington D.C. under Student Council sponsorship. During a rigorous seven days, these students were encouraged to discover the complex world of government and power politics. They, along with students from all 50 states and some schools abroad, comprised a wide spectrum of economic backgrounds, lifestyles and values to create a diverse National Student Body.

For several years, Student Council has actively promoted the election process in a for-real atmosphere. Each of the four classes represent people from different precincts. There are election judges to preside over the qualified voter list (class enrollment) and to enforce secret balloting. The elected officers for next year's Student Council are Lori Conklin (treasurer), Bessie Davila (Corres. Secretary), Mary Jane Gonzales (Rec. Secretary), Paul Hinojos (President), Kelly Hunt (Vice-President)

You are so funny, sweet! I'm glad that we have gotten to be friends. I hope that you will always be my best friend.
I wish you were here now.
Whatever you do, take care.
Love,
Gina

It's really different all through the halls & snack bar
